Few Cases.

Following the two pay days, very few cases of disturbing the peace were reported. Usually pay day means about a dozen cases in each court.

Hunting Parties.

About a dozen persons left last night for points down the river for week end hunting trips. The rabbit hunting in the valley is reported as being excellent.

Knight Templars Leave.

About 40 members of the Knights Templar of Bisbee left yesterday for Douglas, where today they will attend special Easter services.

To Donate Game.

The Warren Grays will donate the proceeds of a ball game, to be held about the middle of April, to the childrens play ground fund.

Married at Portland.

Miss Myrtle James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. James, of School Hill, a most estimable daughter of Bisbee and known and popular among a very wide circle of acquaintances, was married at Portland, Oregon at the home of her aunt, where she was visiting, on March 16th, to Ralph Conner, a prominent young business man of Portland. They left immediately following the ceremony for a wedding trip in the northwest after which they will make their home in Portland. The bride has a great many friends in Bisbee and Cochise county who join most heartily in wishing them a most happy career. Announcement of the wedding was made here yesterday.

New Yet Old.

J. J. Quill, one of the most popular young men in the city, because he has made his way upward through sheer merit, has launched in the transfer business for himself and is out with rigs tynt can and want to deliver the goods. Mr. Quill is known to a great many people in the district who wish him success.

Have a Boy.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bloomquist at their rooms in the Johnson hotel, yesterday, a boy. The young man is a progressive in the matter of loud speech and distinctly satisfactory to the proud parents.

Broken Arm.

Walter Ainslee, a ten year old boy son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ainslee, fell from a fence while playing with companions yesterday afternoon with result of a broken arm, the fracture being at the elbow and exceptionally difficult.

FUN AT Y. W. C. A.

One of the biggest events ever given in Bisbee will take place March 25 and 26 when the Saphawatom club will hold the Cochise county fair, at the Y. W. C. A. A country wedding will be the special feature Friday evening, while Saturday evening will be given to auctioning of living dolls and athletic stunts by the Y. M. C. A. The art exhibit—Japanese booth—doll exhibit—folk dancing, Midway with its various attractions, band concerts will all combine to make two evenings of rare fun.—Advertisement. 205.

Henry Hamburg and wife are in the city from their ranch.

Mrs. Fred Marquette, who has been ill at the Copper Queen hospital for some time, has recovered and has returned to her home on Opera drive.

Mrs. Gladys Hardness, a teacher from Hereford, is in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas.

Miss Henrietta Clausen will spend the day in Douglas with friends.

FRATERNAL NOTES

From April 2 for one week, the California carnival company will be at the Lowell grounds under the auspices of the Moose. The carnival is an elaborate one and has many new features. A large attendance is certain.

The first memorial services of the Bisbee Moose since organization will be on March 30. The public is invited to attend the services, to be held at the Orpheum theater. Moose continue rapid growth and now number more than 300 members.

ELKS ELECT OFFICERS

On Friday night two important elections were held in Bisbee lodge world, by the Elks and the Moose. Both elections were held on Friday night. The following officers were elected by the Elks for the ensuing year: Exalted ruler, W. D. Evans; esteemed lecturer, G. H. Rhodes; esteemed ruling knight, J. H. Gray; secretary, E. M. Cox; treasurer, J. H. Watson; Tyler, Edward King; trustee, Sam Frankenberg; representative to grand lodge, J. M. Ball, alternate, M. J. Cunningham. The Elks now have a total membership of 450 with 20 applications in. Tuesday night the Elks will hold a dance. To this all members, as well as those who have put in their applications for membership, are invited. The dance is the first since the quarantine and promises to be a big affair.

MOOSE ELECTION

Officers for the local Moose lodge were elected as follows: Dictator, Howard Barkell; vice dictator, E. E. Stinson; prelate, K. Ross; secretary, George W. Ludwig; treasurer, D. B. Seed; sergeant at arms, J. C. Dunn, assistant sergeant at arms, C. S. Wilson; outer guard, W. A. Campbell; inner guard, Charles Teichardt; trustees, W. J. Spaulding, W. B. Tomlin and George E. Smith; physician, Dr. N. C. Bledsoe.

The members of the Fraternal Brotherhood No. 452, gave Leonard Temby, a member, a very pleasant surprise party on the occasion of his 22nd birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Temby; Mrs. Catherine Finnott; Mrs. Ruth Fenner; Mrs. Nellie Seuck; Messrs. Leonard Temby; Dave Truscott; Ray Henderson; Bert Peterson; G. J. Hutchison; S. F. Sparks; T. M. Sparks; Tony Carrotto; Misses: Clara Arndt; Mary Pennepacker; Ollie Fowler; Dolly Fowler; Barbara Shearer; Elva Shuck; Maud Truscott; Mary Sutti; Sophi Metz.

After singing, dancing and playing games until a late hour, refreshments of cake, ice cream and nuts were served. A beautiful birthday cake was cut by Leonard Temby, who responded to the toast given by Mrs. Finnott.

FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD

Fraternal Brotherhood 452 met March 19, with a large crowd present. After the business of the lodge was disposed of, a special social program was held the occasion being the seventeenth anniversary of the order.

A very interesting paper was read by Catherine Finnott on the lodge. Its work and what is had accomplished in the past 17 years, after which the following program was rendered: Recitation by Elva Shuck, reading by Mrs. Pool, piano solo by Sophie Metz, recitation by Amy Fenner, song by Mrs. C. Finnott and recitation by Dorothy Fenner.

Dancing and refreshments followed.
